ALEJANDRA PALACIOS "ALEX" BIO

I chose the brush as my way of expressing my feelings through life. It allows me to combine colors and feelings to create an artwork with a sense of realism, and a peek from my perspective.

My point of view shows life from a completely different way. I deconstruct the world I see in geometric shapes, give them color and make them move. This geometric pattern makes my style unique. Different layers of colors and lines express the context of my composition.

Nowadays, I am inspired by master painters as Pablo Picasso and Romero Britto. They combine elements of cubism, pop art, and graffiti painting in their work, using vibrant colors as a visual expression. The central figure interacts with the background using perspective and layers to explain the context of the composition giving an expression of hope, dreams, and happiness. My studies in Architecture, Art History, 3D Computer Drafting, and Animation Art and Design, gave me the influences to inspire me to explore new ways to create my own compositions.

Alejandra was born in Mexico City and lives in Hollywood Florida. In High school she specialized in oil on canvas class and continued her painting studies at the National School of Arts "San Carlos" in Mexico City. She studied Bachelor of Architecture in University Autonoma de Mexico UNAM (1987), and a Diploma of Art History in the University Anahuac Mexico City (1991). She worked as an Architect in a successful construction company in Mexico City. When she moved to Florida, she studied the Associate in Computer Drafting and Assisted Design AutoCAD (1999) and continued her studies in 3D computer drawing at the Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale FL, awarded as "The best portfolio" on the Associate in Animation Art and Design (2005) leading to work as a 3D architectural visualize artist in architectural firms and later participating in the developing of project's grants for the beatification of Hollywood Beach for the CRA in the city of Hollywood FL.

She has participated in many exhibitions in Florida and Mexico. Also, she had publications in Broward's local newspapers and has been awarded for her artwork.
