Education Advisory Committee - Questions***

The school curriculum should be updated to reflect future success of students as opposed to outdated textbooks and knowledge. School should also be more than state test.

My vision of education in Hollywood would be to set the standard for an multi-cultural district - addressing the melting pot that Hollywood is and high educational standards to bridge the education gap.

The primary work of the Education Committee is address the issues in education and give solutions, as opposed to just saying the problem.

We can address the most important issues by listening to the constituents. The most intense of complaints as well as those that impact safety and security should be at the forefront of every meeting.

We can set practical and measurable goals in which to measure our policies. It can't just all be rhetoric.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. What are the current challenges facing education? 2. What is your vision for education in Hollywood? 3. What do you see as the primary work of the Education Advisory Committee? 4. With only one meeting a month, the Committee is limited in what it can do. How does/should the Committee decide what's most important? 5. How can the Committee know if its mission and goals are being accomplished?
