What do you believe uniquely qualifies you to serve on the Community Development Advisory Board?

Education Advisory Committee - Questions*

The current challenges revolve around providing better and more profound health care across the cultural divide and finding a better way of testing the children.

Those two topics can take a whole years worth of meetings. The money that could be saved from testing paperwork can be redirected to hire more counselors and social workers.

The focus of education in Hollywood should be the safety of our children!

With the new law to open carry weapons arriving in Florida, it will be even more difficult to secure a safe environment for our children.

I have given three most important challenges facing Hollywood with regard to education.

I would hope the members of the committee would be able to make recommendations to the City.

Results of these suggestions will speak for themselves.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. What are the current challenges facing education? 2. What is your vision for education in Hollywood? 3. What do you see as the primary work of the Education Advisory Committee? 4. With only one meeting a month, the Committee is limited in what it can do. How does/should the Committee decide what's most important? 5. How can the Committee know if its mission and goals are being accomplished?

Parks, Recreation & Cultural Arts Advisory Board - Questions*

I am just now participating in large group activity.
As a senior, I have been cautious. Large groups have just become doable again.
I have served on this Commission before. I worked to keep Orangebrook a public course.
If needed, I would be happy to serve again and see the Orangebrook Golf Course and buildings reach its conclusion.
Yes I can attend meetings.
I served as the secretary of the Downtown Hollywood Business Association for five years.
I was involved in Mardi Gras and as a business owner worked with the CRA to promote business in Downtown.
There are times when benefits to residents are not so apparent. This Commission brings some equity to the challenges of urban development and cultural appreciation to residents.

Please answer these six questions above. 1. How many events have you attended in the past year at any of the parks and athletics facilities in the City? 2. What other relevant organizations, clubs, or associations were you previously, and/or currently are involved in? 6. How does parks, recreation and cultural arts contribute to quality of life?

Planning & Development Board - Questions*

As a resident of District 1, I have been participating in many meetings focusing on how all the changes in the City will benefit the residents of long standing.
The residents are the least appreciated group when it comes to considering changes in the City.
Basically, the residents pick up the slack for all the debt. Contractors offer money to the City ostensibly to right the budget because believe
It or not we don't know how to write a progressive budget. We are in debt constantly and as a result we are too needy to make good decisions for our most prized possessions, our Citizens.
A comprehensive plan is a plan that works a minimum of five years out to reflect the present needs and needs for future success.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. How have you prepared yourself to serve on the Planning and Development Board? 2. Explain how your personal and/or professional experiences will contribute to the meeting the goal(s) of the Board or City. * Personal experiences, * Professional experiences. 3.
