Donnelly -

Shipping typically takes 1-2 weeks from factory to jobsite (Factory uses LTL, not dedicated freight so the window is a little wider). Once we get closer, we can put the exact set date on the schedule.

Thanks,

Hello Abraham:

Thanks for sending the letter and I'm waiting on the boss's review of it. Let you know if more is needed.

Do we have the arrival dates, or can you provide anticipated dates? I am currently asking for an extension of 387 days. This puts close-out on 2/28/2025 and matches the FDEM/FEMA grant deadlines. We can always work out punchlist items (if any) after that.

Good afternoon Donnelly.

Apologize for the delay, attached is a letter outlining details regarding manufacture, ordering and shipping delays. Please let me know if you have any questions, concerns or if I can help with anything.

All the best
