37. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Summer Vacation

Commissioner Callari stated she enjoyed the summer break and is ready to embrace the new set of Commission meetings.

Tallahassee

Commissioner Callari requested support for the City to have a group from the Commission and City Manager's office travel to Tallahassee to advocate for the City issues. Mayor Levy and Commissioner Biederman supported the idea.

C10 Canal

Commissioner Callari stated the trees are overgrown in areas along the C10 Canal. She requested support for staff to reach out to the South Florida Water Management District to have them cut back. Mayor Levy supported the idea.

Fence Ordinance

Commissioner Callari stated there are many areas in the City where the 4 foot fence height in the front yard has been violated. She requested Commission support for staff to research if the 4 foot fence height should be changed or the violators be fined. Vice Mayor Gruber and Mayor Levy supported the request.

Business Vehicles

Commissioner Callari stated there are business vehicles being parked in front of residences. She requested Commission support for staff to research what can be done about business vehicles being parked in front yards. Commissioner Biederman and Vice Mayor Gruber supported the request.

Liberia Celebration

Commissioner Callari stated the Commission received a letter from Commissioner Anderson requesting support for funding the Liberia Celebration. She stated she has finally received funding after many years of trying to fund the Wing Ding Fire Barbecue event. However, there has been a problem getting participation for the event, so she wants to use the $25,000.00 to fund the Liberia Celebration. The Commission supported her request.

38. Vice Mayor Gruber, District 4Workshop

Vice Mayor Gruber stated the Capital Improvement Workshop he attended today was great. He stated he is looking forward to seeing the fruition of items that are being worked on. Vice Mayor Gruber questioned if the NORESO lighting improvement will be starting this year. Adam Reichbach, Assistant City Manager for Finance & Administration, replied yes.

Miami Band Shell

Vice Mayor Gruber stated he went to a concert at the Miami Band shell over the summer and saw how many people are attending these venues. He requested support for the Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts to investigate how Miami organized these events. Commissioner Quintana, Commissioner Callari, Commissioner

Anderson, and Commissioner Biederman supported the idea.

Thank you.

Vice Mayor Gruber thanked the staff for all their hard work.

39. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

Circuit / Sun Shuttle Project

Commissioner Biederman stated it was great to see the Circuit Shuttle/Sun Shuttle launch. He stated a video would be great to send to associations around the City to put on their association channels. Commissioner Biederman stated the more information distributed the better success we will have with the project.

Elks Association

Commissioner Biederman stated the Elks Association will be hosting a nine-day Brother Hood ride starting on November 3rd to support fallen heroes. He stated the association would like the Commission to welcome them when they arrive. Commissioner Biederman stated he spoke to staff to accommodate this group with being able to use Driftwood pool to shower and freshen up.

Photo Enforcement

Commissioner Biederman stated a Photo Enforcement Bill was passed in Tallahassee to allow cities to place cameras to catch speeders over 10 miles per hour in school zones. He stated the fine is $100.00 and that the City would obtain sixty percent. Commissioner Biederman stated this would provide extra funding to the police for other things. He requested the City Attorney's office draft the ordinance and procurement to expedite the purchasing process. Commissioner Quintana, Vice Mayor Gruber, and Mayor Levy supported the idea.

Illegal Dumping Fines

Commissioner Biederman stated everyone needs to understand the hard junk and illegal dumping process, and the process for fines. Property owners need to be held accountable. He stated there is a lot of garbage everywhere and Code Enforcement needs to enforce the rules. Commissioner Biederman stated the ordinance needs to be updated, and cameras need to be put in place for illegal dumping, so the property owner is not getting the fine.

Cooling Stations

Commissioner Biederman stated the record heat waves have caused health issues for some and he would like to see the City provide cooling stations. He requested support to prepare for next summer. Vice Mayor

Gruber and Commissioner Quintana supported the idea.

Commissioner Shuham stated the County is looking into this issue at the libraries.

40. Commissioner Quintana, District 6

Technology Training

Commissioner Quintana announced free job training to become certified in broadband or fiber optic technology. She stated applicants can apply on the City's website until September 9, 2023.

Pinnacle Phase II

Commissioner Quintana stated that she was happy to hear the closing of Pinnacle Phase II took place today. She stated this is a great opportunity.

Shopping Carts

Commissioner Quintana stated businesses are not picking up their shopping carts. She stated that City employees are going out to pick up the carts, but the businesses are not picking them up. She stated the City does not have the space to store the carts and for the City to destroy the item per the ordinance. She requested staff to investigate the ordinance and the options available.

ArtsPark

Commissioner Quintana stated she was thinking of ways to optimize events at ArtsPark. She requested support for a conversation to take place regarding the City to be a host of the event called Ignite Broward. Mayor Levy and Vice Mayor Gruber supported the idea.

Commission in the Community

Commissioner Quintana stated she will be hosting the next Commission in Community for District 6 on September 27, 2023, at Orange Brook Elementary School. She requested support to change the way it will be done this time. Commissioner Quintana stated she would like to have the focus dialog to just take more time to listen to one another. Commissioner Callari, and Mayor Levy supported the idea.

Mural Art

Commissioner Quintana requested the status of the mural art outside of the CRA project and would like to know if this will be presented to the Commission soon. She stated she is very interested in what will be proposed.

Historical Society

Commissioner Quintana stated she would like to invite everyone to attend the Historical Society talk on Sunday, September 10, 2023. She stated she will be presenting "Exploring the History of Hispanics in Hollywood".

41. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Thank you

Commissioner Shuham stated she would like to thank everyone for allowing her to attend the Commission meeting virtually.

Art and Cultural Center

Commissioner Shuham requested Commission support to have staff identify an additional $30,000.00 funding for the Art and Cultural Center due to the CRA no longer being able to provide funding for programming. Mayor Levy suggested everyone speak with Joy Adderley, Hollywood Art and Culture Center, to learn more about it.

No Building Permits

Commissioner Shuham stated she would like support for residents that have concerns regarding construction in the areas where they feel there are no permits. She stated she would like to see a form created with a gentle warning from the Building Division that the City suspects unpermitted work is being done on the property.

Commissioner Biederman suggested a stop work order. Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, stated the Building Official must see the work for a stop work order to be issued.

Trees

Commissioner Shuham stated she has received emails regarding work being done in Dania Beach just north of the Dania Beach bridge. She stated she wanted to let residents know that they are removing Australian Pine trees, and it is being done by Broward County.

Apology

Commissioner Shuham apologized she will have to miss the September 10, 2023 Community in the Community event. She wished Commissioner Quintana all the best with the presentation.

42. Commissioner Anderson, District 2

Liberia 100 Celebration

Commissioner Anderson thanked the Commission for the approval for the $25,000.00 funding that will go towards the Liberia celebration. She stated she was happy that it was approved in such a short time.

Welcome Signs

Commissioner Anderson stated she spoke to Andria Wingett, Deputy Director of Developmental Services, about having entrance signs into Liberia, she would like to see them installed where needed.

Businesses and Trees

Commissioner Anderson stated she visited downtown Hollywood where the streets are being repaired and saw that the businesses are losing money due to the construction. She stated she noticed that large trees had been removed. Commissioner Anderson stated she would like the City to be notified when large trees are being removed.

43. Mayor Levy

Liberia 100 Celebration

Mayor Levy thanked Commissioner Callari for giving up her $25,000.00 funding for the Wing Ding Fire barbeque to support the Liberia Celebration.

Sea Walls / King Tide

Mayor Levy stated this weekend there will be King Tides. He stated it will take place on Friday through Monday in the morning hours. He stated he would like a police boat to travel and take photos of the sea walls that have been or are close to breaching. Mayor Levy stated any property owner with a sea wall that has been breached should be notified.

Flooding

Mayor Levy stated flooding relief is in the works just south of the Sunset Golf property. He thanked the staff for all their help with this issue.

44. City Attorney

Executive Session

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, announced pursuant to Florida Statutes 286.011 (8)(a), an executive session would be held on Wednesday, September 6, 2023, at 8:30 A.M. regarding Kevin Morningstar v. City of Hollywood litigation. Attending the session will be the Mayor, Commissioners, City Manager, City Attorney, and Chief litigation counsel Julian Geraci.

Well Wishes

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, stated he would like to send well wishes to those impacted by the progressing storm affecting the coast today.

45. City Manager
