WORK HISTORY

PRESIDENT

08/2003 to CURRENT

Connections For Business | Hollywood, FL

David is responsible for building a world-class IT support organization that serves small to medium business as their own IT department. Under his leadership, Connections has become one of the top 500 Managed Service Providers in the world, serving an array of industries including legal, medical, construction, accounting, distribution and manufacturing.

During his tenure, David led a transformation of the company from an IT projects contractor to the leading managed IT services provider in South Florida. David has developed the sales model the company uses to have conversations with prospects. He's also built the intensely focused client care team that provides the daily support to his clients.

David's ongoing involvement in the company centers on business development, both the organic growth of winning the trust of clients individually as well as acquisition. He also oversees all the finances and maintains an active, strategic role in developing the customer service team.

SENIOR ENGINEER

05/1986 to 08/2003

Connections For Business | Hollywood, FL

Senior Engineer responsible for design and implementation of diverse computer networks. David developed systems and processes to accelerate project deployments, reducing costs by 70% and drastically improving profits. During this time he also led the systems research and development team that focused on bringing new products and service offerings to market.

SYSTEMS ENGINEER

05/1983 to 05/1986

Connections For Business | Hollywood, FL

David's first technical training was all self-taught... reading manuals while watching over general system maintenance routines like backups. After a lot of reading and working with the computer systems he had access to, David was introduced to his first client, a property development firm in Coral Gables which suffered a server failure that had the entire accounting department down. Since he was only 15, he was driven onsite, where he resolved the problem. The confidence that inspired his initial success continued to drive his ongoing learning and business experience. By the time he finished high school in 1985, David was serving over a dozen clients in South Florida.
