45. Commissioner Callari, District 3*Last Week's Rainfall Event

Commissioner Callari thanked staff for all their hard work during last week's rainfall event.

Contracts

Commissioner Callari stated Christmas is six months away and she would like to make sure contracts are in place for the celebration at Young Circle ArtsPark. She stated the Commission agreed this will be a big event and wants to ensure contracts are placed now so there will be a good choice for entertainers.

Hurricane Season

Commissioner Callari stated it is hurricane season and encouraged everyone to be prepared with supplies.

Stan Goldman Pickleball Courts

Commissioner Callari stated the Stan Goldman Pickleball Courts are having issues with the weather. She stated it has been open only a month and there are issues with the fence, water, and paint peeling. Commissioner Callari requested a continual update regarding the courts.

Infrastructure

Commissioner Callari stated she is concerned about the amount of money being spent on infrastructure and the need for flooding in the hot spot areas. She requested a cost comparison and what locations will need additional storm drainage. She stated the Live Local Act can help with affordable housing and other costs. Commissioner Callari stated that we are a built-out City, and we need to start making big decisions for the long term.

46. Commissioner Gruber, District 4*Second Oldest House in Broward County

Commissioner Gruber stated that 4220 N 58th Avenue is the second oldest house in Broward County and was built in 1902. He stated he spoke with the owner who stated he has intentions to restore the house. Commissioner Gruber stated the homeowner would entertain donating the house to the City. Commissioner Gruber requested Commission support for staff to investigate how the house could be saved. Mayor Levy and Commissioner Biederman supported the idea.

Houses in Disrepair

Commissioner Gruber stated the City Attorney has looked into two houses that are in disrepair located on Claire Street and Casper Court in Emerald Hills. Commissioner Gruber stated the houses are homesteaded and one is currently occupied.

Mayor Levy questioned if the nuisance law could be used and when the condition of a house arises to a nuisance.

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, stated when a special magistrate agrees it is a nuisance and enters an order finding it a nuisance, and orders the property owner to comply within a very short period. If the owner does not comply the City has the authority to make the repairs to make it safe and file a claim of lien on the property. He stated homestead properties cannot be liened, but can receive a monetary judgment.

Commissioner Gruber encouraged the Commissioners to look within their districts to help rectify houses in disrepair.

47. Commissioner Biederman, District 5*Trees

Commissioner Biederman stated the design plan for downtown was to plant trees that would not make a mess. He stated that the trees are shredding fruit and staining the new $15 million pavers. He requested for the Community Redevelopment Agency and the Department of Public Works take a look to ensure the contractor placed the correct trees or advise what would need to be done to rectify the situation.

Illegal Dumping

Commissioner Biederman stated the area of Polk Street between 22nd and 26th Avenue has illegal dumping weekly and requested a sweep of the hot areas. He stated there needs to be something done so the main roads are not an eyesore in the City.

Foreclosure Houses

Commissioner Biederman requested the City Attorney follow up on the aggressive foreclosure policy. He stated the City could address dilapidated homes that are nuisances to the neighborhood by offering first-time buyer program which would provide families with opportunity. Commissioner Biederman stated this would help avoid properties becoming Air BnB's or industrial rental properties. He requested an updated report regarding properties in foreclosure.

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, stated the City cannot go after properties that are homesteaded, and he would send an updated list of non-homestead properties.

48. Commissioner Quintana, District 6*Bilingual Volunteers

Commissioner Quintana stated she is excited about the possibly of working with City staff and the Hispanic Unity of Florida to add twenty-six bilingual volunteers to assist with the emergency response program.

Commissioner Shuham requested staff to pursue foreclosures on the properties with the highest values, but still wants homesteaded violators pursued. She stated that even if the houses are homesteaded, she would like the process to continue. Commissioner Shuham stated letting the houses sit just because they are homesteaded is not acceptable. She questioned if the houses are still considered a homestead if it is abandoned. Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, replied yes.

Broadwalk Restrooms

Commissioner Shuham stated the bathrooms on the Broadwalk are still having issues with cleanliness and supplies even after switching vendors. Commissioner Shuham requested airflow in the bathrooms possibly adding air condition units as they are stifling. She requested the CRA staff to investigate the issues.

Maintenance of Traffic (MOT)

Commissioner Shuham stated the Maintenance of Traffic (MOT) on Van Buren Street is not working, there is no sidewalk, and directions are unreasonable. She stated it is a combination between Building division and Engineering division and needs to be fixed. She stated especially now with so much construction there is a potential need for pushing sidewalks to be covered.

Supporting Municipal Women in Government Convention

Commissioner Shuham requested Commission support to have the Municipal Women in Government Convention in July at the Diplomat Hotel. She stated Yvette Coleburn, Vice Mayor of Miramar, is the chair for the National League of Cities, and it would be great for the Commission to support it. Commissioner Shuham stated that women elected from all over the country will be attending this event at the Diplomat and it would be embarrassing if Hollywood is not represented. She requested for everyone to respond to the Mayor's assistant to let her know of the sponsorship. Commissioner Callari stated that there are two major events at the Diplomat Hotel. She stated she would like to have grab bags to highlight the Sun Shuttle and the City.

50. Vice Mayor Anderson, District 2

Vice Mayor Anderson questioned the new lift station at Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Center. She stated there is still flooding at Cody Street between 23rd and 24th.
