Hollywood Housing Authority - Questions*

1. In my opinion, the greatest challenge to keeping housing affordable in Hollywood is the increasing gap between wages for many residents and the rising costs of housing, driven by factors like limited land availability, and increasing property values. This makes it increasingly difficult for individuals and families to secure and maintain stable, affordable housing.
2. As a Commissioner on the Hollywood Housing Authority Board since 2021 and having served as Chair since June 2024, my involvement has fostered a strong and comprehensive skillset across all of the listed disciplines. While my responsibilities have touched upon each of these critical areas, I would characterize my proficiency in Property Management and Affordable Housing Administration as follows:
3. Drawing from the principles outlined in my previous response regarding my comprehensive understanding of the Hollywood Housing Authority's operations and focusing on the core tenets of ensuring equitable and accessible housing, I am most passionate about Rental Housing Affordability and Fair Housing.
4. Growing up as a lifelong resident of Hollywood has instilled in me a deep connection to this city and its people. Witnessing firsthand the evolution and growth of our community has fostered a strong desire to contribute positively to its future. My motivation for volunteerism stems from a genuine commitment to strengthening the community that raised me.
5. A city's economic well-being is significantly supported by housing diversity, as it enables businesses to attract the necessary range of employees, accommodates a broader population that fuels the local economy, promotes stability through a variety of housing choices, ultimately contributing to a more inclusive diverse environment.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. In your opinion what is the greatest challenge to keeping housing affordable in Hollywood? 2.
