The grant submission proposal seeks continuation of funding for the established Victim Advocate Program in an amount not to exceed $64,291.00 from the state program, and requires a City cash match in an amount not to exceed $16,073.00.

The anticipated cash match requirement will be a portion of the salaries of the existing Victim Advocate position and Police Sergeant supervising the unit. Those positions are fully budgeted for FY 2016 and will therefore require no additional funding if the grant is awarded.
