Affordable Housing Advisory Committee - Questions*

- 1) The greatest challenge in keeping housing affordable in Hollywood is the demand for housing. The demand in Hollywood is substantial due to its proximity to Fort Lauderdale and Miami. There is not enough supply to meet the demand. As property values and demand increases it directly impacts rental and purchase costs.
- 2) I am most skilled in home purchase education, affordable housing activism and housing market stability since they all intertwine. Being a real estate agent, I come across individuals that would like to purchase in Hollywood but have unfortunately been priced out due to shortage of inventory and the competitiveness.
- 3) I am most passionate about ownership housing affordability. Affordable homeownership provides stability for families. When one can afford to buy a home, it provides security and also allows the family to build equity overtime. As property values increase, homeowners can accumulate wealth that will be passed down to the next generation. This also shapes the neighborhoods and creates strong communities which in turn affects local businesses that stimulate the economy and provides jobs for the residents.
- 4) I have always volunteered since high school even though that did slow down over the years. Being involved gives you purpose and it's a way to combine passion and service. Being involved also creates a community within your community which I love.
- 5) Housing diversity is important for a few reasons. It creates stability when economic challenges present themselves and also allows diversity in the community to be automatic since options are available for different types of people from all walks of life.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. In your opinion what is the greatest challenge to keeping housing affordable in Hollywood? 2. Which of the following disciplines are you most skilled? • Home Purchase Education, • Housing Market Employment, • Housing Market Stability, • Affordable Housing Construction, * Affordable Housing Activism. 3. Which of the following disciplines are you most passionate? • Ownership Housing Affordability, • Rental Housing Affordability, • Housing Market Stability, • New Housing Construction, * Fair Housing. 4. What (if any) life experience motivated you toward volunteerism? 5. What role does housing diversity play in Hollywood's economic health?

African American Advisory Council - Questions*

Community Development Advisory Board - Questions*

1) According to the LMI chart I am not in a low or moderate LMI neighborhood.
2)The importance of revitalizing neighborhoods, particularly those facing disinvestment to enhance livability and promote social equity in Hollywood. Initiatives such as neighborhood redevelopment, affordable housing development, and beautification projects play a crucial role in fostering community vibrancy and pride. By investing in these efforts, we can work towards creating a more sustainable and inclusive environment for all residents.
3)A healthy neighborhood is first of all safe, has a range of housing options including affordable housing not just luxury. The neighborhood has to have a strong economy that offers a diverse job opportunities from all education levels. There are convenient and safe transportation options such as public transit, bike lanes and accessibility to roadways. A sense of community with strong social networks and civic engagement. Residents from a diverse background will feel welcomed and included. The neighborhood offers access to parks, playgrounds, green spaces, and recreational facilities where residents can engage in physical activity, leisure, and socialization. Environmental sustainability practices are promoted to enhance the quality of life. A healthy neighborhood is built on a myriad of pillars.
4)To me, the primary focus of a Community Development Advisory Board is to facilitate community development, cater to the requirements of residents, and advocate for fair growth and prosperity within community.
