21. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Vacation Rentals

Commissioner Sherwood stated she is concerned with information on what the cities cannot do for vacation rentals and party houses. Commissioner Sherwood stated she is hoping if there are three calls for infractions, they are asked by the Police to leave the premises, similar to the City of Fort Lauderdale program.

22. Commissioner Case, District 1

High Tides

Commissioner Case stated the City Emergency Coordinator reports that there will be high tides that are going to affect the City throughout the next few days. She cautioned everyone to be careful.

Beach Parking

Commissioner Case stated she wants to continue to monitor employee parking on the beach, and agrees with the need for a shuttle.

August 30, 2017 Commission Meeting

Commissioner Case asked her colleagues for approval to attend the August 30, 2017 Commission meeting by telephone as she will be out of town. It was the general consensus to allow Commissioner Case to participate by phone.

23. Commissioner Hernandez, District 2

Beach Parking

Commissioner Hernandez suggested having employee parking underneath the Hollywood Blvd. bridge site. If this is done, there will be significant expenditures to make it usable as the current conditions need to be improved such as gravel, lighting and security. The location is currently used for drainage during high tides and rains.

Vacation Rentals

Commissioner Hernandez stated he is gravely concerned with vacation rental operators as there are only about a dozen bad operators who are causing problems. He explained his experience with a vacation rental operator this weekend.

24. Vice Mayor Callari, District 3

Vacation Rentals

Vice Mayor Callari thanked everyone for attending the recent vacation rental meeting. The bad rental operators are affecting the residents quality of life by not following the rules.

Summer

Vice Mayor Callari stated school finished for summer and cautioned everyone about swimming pool safety, and to contact the Police to have a vacation watch on their home when out of town.

Graduation

Vice Mayor Callari congratulated all the high school seniors graduating.

25. Commissioner Blattner, District 4

Alan Fallik

Commissioner Blattner thanked Alan Fallik for stepping up and being Acting City Attorney.

Notification to Utilities

Commissioner Blattner complimented the City Manager and his staff for sending notifications to utilities to have them restore the areas with pavement and street markings after they complete their utility work.

RAC

Commissioner Blattner stated he wants to have a meeting with City staff about the RAC, specifically the Dixie Highway corridor, regarding the uses that are being grandfathered in, as he is concerned about the continued uses of used car lots.

4th of July

Commissioner Blattner stated the 4th of July holiday is approaching and he would like the Police Department to perform verbal inspections and ask visitors to the beach about oversized coolers. He also wants the City to utilize social media for communications regarding notifications for the event.

Call Back System

Commissioner Blattner stated he had a resident contact him about a water bill, this person was on hold for 20 minutes. Commissioner Blattner suggested the department install a call back system.

26. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

McArthur High School

Commissioner Biederman thanked Mr. Victor and the students from McArthur High School for attending the City Commission meeting today.

Police Department

Commissioner Biederman thanked the Police Department for their quick response last month.

40 Year Building Inspections

Commissioner Biederman questioned if City Hall has to perform a 40 year building inspection and if so when is it due.

Garbage Bags

Commissioner Biederman stated the garbage bags which the Park Rangers were handing out to help with trash over the Memorial Day Holiday were very successful.

Street Renaming

Commissioner Biederman questioned the status of street renaming.

27. Mayor Levy

Mooring Presentation

Mayor Levy complimented the staff on the recent mooring presentation for North and South Lake.

Vacation Rentals / Party Houses

Mayor Levy stated he agrees with the previous comments made regarding vacation rentals and there needs to be a distinction between party houses and vacation rentals. He suggested the City seek legislative action from Tallahassee on the difference. Commissioner Hernandez supported the request.

Commissioner Hernandez requested support to direct staff to draft an ordinance prohibiting party houses. Vice Mayor Callari and Commissioner Sherwood supported the request.

28. City Attorney

Alan Fallik, Acting City Attorney, had no further comments.

29. City Manager

929 North Southlake - Vacation Rental House

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated the City will be revoking the vacation rental license at 929 North Southlake.
