Black History Month

Commissioner Quintana stated she had a great experience being a part of the African American Advisory Council celebration, it was a great event.

Women's History Month

Commissioner Quintana stated she is looking forward to March and celebrating Women's History Month.

Strategic Plan

Commissioner Quintana stated she enjoyed taking part in the first phase of the Strategic Plan session, and is looking forward to the next phase, and she wants to make sure the City has a clear vision. She stated the quality of the speakers at the Strategic Plan were excellent, and how important it is for the City to be diversified economically and not rely on one industry to keep the City growing.

25. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Welcome

Commissioner Shuham welcomed new Public Works Director, Joseph Kroll, and thanked Annalie Holmes, Assistant Director of Public Works, for stepping in and taking on the acting role.

Commissioner Callari left the meeting at 5:40 PM and returned 5:41 PM.

Legislative Issues

Commissioner Shuham stated Tallahassee is in session and they are passing bills which would pre-empt anything the City does. She wants to focus what needs to be completed before the pre-emption starts. She requested staff to keep the Commission informed on legislation which has pre-emptions in them which would affect the City.

Alleyways

Commissioner Shuham questioned if there are ways for the City to maximize the use of alleys in the Downtown Hollywood area. She stated the City needs to be cautious as developments are coming to the City in the near future as this issue is addressed.

Mardi Gras

Commissioner Shuham thanked the producers of the Mardi Gras event and stated it looked like a lot of fun.

Orangebrook

Commissioner Shuham thanked all the proposers on the Orangebrook Project. She stated that it is great to see countless designs from all involved.

26. Commissioner Anderson, District 2

Black History Month

Commissioner Anderson thanked the African American Advisory Council for the Black History month event they put on at Washington Park Community Center. She thanked Alison Saffold, Civic Affairs Administrator, for her involvement. Commissioner Anderson stated she will invite everyone out next year for the experience.
