African American Advisory Council - Questions*

One of the greatest challenges facing the African American community in Hollywood is economic and social equity, including access to affordable housing, quality education, and sustainable employment opportunities. Additionally, a lack of internet access creating a significant digital divide, hindering educational equity by limiting students' ability to participate in online learning, access educational resources, and develop essential digital skills. This gap ultimately impacts their academic achievement and future opportunities, further exaggerating disparities in economic mobility and career readiness.

In terms of commitment, the number of hours I can dedicate per month to AAAC initiatives would depend on my schedule, but I am willing to contribute a meaningful 3-4 hours per month of time to support efforts that align with my skills and passions. I would do my best to include into my responsibilities to better my community. My area of expertise is education, as my background in Exceptional Student Education (ESE), instructional design, and assessment has equipped me with the ability to support students' learning and development effectively. Education is the area I am most passionate about because I believe in promoting equity in learning spaces, inspiring young learners, and ensuring all students, regardless of background, have access to high-quality educational experiences.

My motivation for volunteerism stems from both my career in education and my previous role in the justice system, creating a positive future for my little ones as well. Witnessing firsthand how systemic barriers impact students and families, I am deeply committed to creating positive change by advocating for educational resources and opportunities that empower young learners. Additionally, my own academic journey particularly overcoming challenges as a husband, and father of two has strengthened my dedication to helping others build confidence and achieve success in their lives.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. What is the greatest challenge facing the African American Community in Hollywood? 2. How many hours per month can you dedicate to AAAC initiatives? 3. Which of the following disciplines are you most passionate? * Education, * Employment, * Economics, * Cultural Awareness, * Housing. 5.
