Planning & Development Board - Questions*

- 2. I am familiar with the commitment it requires to be on the board and as a long time Hollywood resident, I have seen the latest developments and progress achieved.
- 3. As a real estate agent, I have visited many cities in Miami-Dade and Broward counties. There are opportunity zones that have not been developed and in some areas, that seem to be places not desirable for living. It is important to review the zoning restrictions and evaluate exceptions to create housing development that will bring in property taxes. New development is needed in areas that have been neglected in the past.
- 4. It is nice to see the coming developments in the downtown area. The Dixie Highway corridor has a few projects coming that I believe will be a good change for the area. Hudson Village is one of the buildings that was built for affordable rents, which was a nice improvement from the previous property. The Parkview at Hillcrest was another good development that made a nice improvement for the area. Those properties already doubled in home equity.
- 5. A comprehensive plan evaluates the current conditions of a city and an analysis on future goals for land use, housing development, transportation development, utilities, parks, services from first responders such as police, medical facilities, firefighters and overall economic development.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. How have you prepared yourself to serve on the Planning and Development Roard? 2. Explain how your personal and/or professional experiences will contribute to the meeting the goal(s) of the Board or City. * Personal experiences, * Professional experiences. 3. What is your perspective on balancing growth of the City's tax base while maintaining neighborhood stabilization? 4. What recent developments within the City are most proud of? 5. What is a Comprehensive Plan?
