20. Commissioner Gruber, District 4

Congratulations

Commissioner Gruber congratulated the newly elected and stated he was blessed not to have to run a campaign. Commissioner Gruber suggested not having a Commission meeting the day after the election because many people do not sleep. Commissioner Quintana and Commissioner Callari supported the idea.

Residents' Concerns

Commissioner Gruber stated that during his campaign, he heard from many residents about three main issues: permitting, flooding, and Waste Pro trash services. He stated he is pleased with the new staff and Acela permit system, aiming for the City to excel in Broward County.

Commissioner Gruber stated there is a two-billion-dollar storm master plan to tackle flooding concerns. He stated there are ongoing complaints about Waste Pro's bulk trash pickup and would like to see it resolved. Commissioner Gruber stated residents enjoy living in the City and praised the staff.

Mayor Levy

Commissioner Gruber thanked Mayor Levy for his hard work and dedication to the City despite personal challenges. He expressed his gratitude for the Mayor's support during his mother-in-law's passing and stated he enjoyed working with him.

21. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

Early Voting

Commissioner Biederman stated he enjoyed participating in the early voting as he was able to speak with residents and address concerns. He stated he was able to speak with residents and address concerns. Commissioner Biederman stated everyone is here to resolve our residents' issues.

Sidewalk Art Projects

Commissioner Biederman requested staff to provide a list of sidewalk art projects within the City. He stated the sidewalks on 19th Street and 20th Street need to be repaired and requested similar sidewalk art in other areas.

Best Wishes

Commissioner Biederman stated it has been an amazing opportunity to know and work with Commissioner Anderson, and he wishes her luck in the future.

Park Renaming

Commissioner Biederman read a submission about the naming of a park after the Gottlieb family which was discussed at a prior meeting. He requested Commission support to add the name Gottlieb to 46th Avenue as a dual street name. Commissioner Biederman stated this will honor Marvin and Ken Gottlieb, who have contributed to the City. He stated their office is on 46th Avenue, which goes through the center of what they have built. Mayor Levy and Commissioner Callari supported the idea.

22. Commissioner Quintana, District 6

Commissioner Anderson

Commissioner Quintana stated she would reserve her words for Vice Mayor Anderson for the next meeting; however, she wanted to note that in everything Vice Mayor Anderson does, her kindness shines through.

Thank you

Commissioner Quintana thanked everyone for their support in her re-election. She stated she is not a politician and does not focus on political strategies. She stated she aims to serve and improve the community and appreciated residents' gratitude during the election. Commissioner Quintana stated she looks forward to continuing her public service and thanked the staff for their dedication.

Asset Based Community Project

Commissioner Quintana thanked Luis, a resident in her district, who owns a transportation company and offered one of his buses with her picture for neighbors to use to get to the early voting site. This is an example of asset-based community development project. Commissioner Quintana stated she believes the community has valuable resources and gifts that can help solve local problems and she is eager to continue her work in District 6.

Planning Division

Commissioner Quintana expressed her gratitude for the new planning staff, as she appreciates their energy and ideas. She stated she is excited about a fresh approach to design guidelines, emphasizing the importance of incorporating greenery and beauty in projects like bike lanes and sidewalks. Commissioner Quintana stated the new staff should be given opportunities to demonstrate their creative ideas.

Septic to Sewer

Commissioner Quintana stated she has spoken about septic to sewer conversion since she became Commissioner for District 6. She stated septic systems are holding back some commercial areas, and the commercial areas should be a priority.

23. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Congratulations

Commissioner Shuham congratulated all those elected and stated it is important for all cities to have elections. She stated she is looking forward to working to improve the City together. Commissioner Shuham stated she agrees with Commissioner Quintana that there is only one reason to be a Commissioner, and it is to help people and improve the City.

Tree Removal

Commissioner Shuham questioned if a list of trees which need to be removed could be on the City website for developers to see. She stated it might be cheaper for a developer to move a mature tree than find one themselves.

School Board Round Table

Commissioner Shuham stated she attended a Broward County School

Board round table meeting in Coral Springs with Adam Reichbach, Assistant City Manager, and Chris O'Brien, Director of Public Safety. She stated she found the meeting valuable and learned that the City of Coral Springs and City of Fort Lauderdale have staff for public school education. Commissioner Shuham stated Chris O'Brien, Director of Public Safety, will be contacting these cities to understand their approach. She stated Hollywood's under-enrolled public Schools have excellent faculties and curriculum but lack something important.

24. Vice Mayor Anderson, District 2

Congratulations

Vice Mayor Anderson congratulated all the newly elected officials.

Fire Extinguisher

Vice Mayor Anderson thanked James Russo, Fire Chief, Fire Rescue and Beach Safety, for helping her dispose of a fire extinguisher. She requested Joann Hussey to include fire extinguisher safety information in the City newsletter.

Thank You

Vice Mayor Anderson expressed her gratitude to everyone for their love and support. She stated she would share more appreciation at the next meeting and stated her love for the Liberia Civic Association and Hollywood. Vice Mayor Anderson stated after living in the City for over sixty years, she will be moving to be closer to family but will attend some meetings. She thanked the Commissioners for their kindness.

Thank You

Commissioner Anderson thanked Jovan Douglas, Director of Parking and Code Compliance, for all his hard work.

25. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Vice Mayor Anderson

Commissioner Callari stated she would miss Vice Mayor Anderson.

Jill Tracy Folmar

Commissioner Callari stated there should have been a moment of silence for candidate Jill Tracy Folmar who passed away during the elections and Mayor Levy's mother-in-law, Ruth, who passed this morning.

Leadership

Commissioner Callari stated the Commissioners work hard for the City and said a chief is only as good as his staff and he has a great group of staff. She stated Mayor Levy has a great staff because of his amazing leadership.

Elections

Commissioner Callari congratulated the electees and stated there was a lot of bonding during the fourteen days of early voting. She stated the best part during campaigning was to see the compassion that everyone carries for the City and how everyone wants to make the City the best it can be. Commissioner Callari thanked the candidates, volunteers, and stated we move forward from here. She stated the job is not easy and when she sees the residents and receives thanks it rekindles her faith in what she does daily.

Holiday Toy Drive

Commissioner Callari announced the Park East Civic Association Holiday Toy Drive on November 21, 2024, between 7:00 PM and 8:30 PM at David Park Community Center. She requested those attending to bring an unwrapped toy for ages up to eighteen years old and the toys will be donated to Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital.

Tower at Holland Park

Commissioner Callari stated she had received a few questions regarding the tower at Holland Park and requested an update.

Tallahassee

Skatepark

Commissioner Callari requested information regarding when the skatepark will begin construction.

Florida Department Of Transportation Bridge

Commissioner Callari stated the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) bridge is gross and ugly, and she would like it pressure cleaned and painted. She stated she asked the CRA Executive Director and staff to collaborate to address the bridge.

Hollywood Connect Tent

Commissioner Callari stated that during early voting the City missed a chance to help residents by not having a Hollywood Connect tent with a representative. She stated she spoke with many residents about issues like garbage, speed humps, and potholes. Commissioner Callari thanked Joseph Kroll, Director of Public Works and Jovan

Douglas, Director Parking and Code Compliance for their help and requested a tent for the next election cycle.

Commission Dais Light System

Commissioner Callari requested the Commission dais system be reinstated as it provides professionalism and limits the length Commission of discussions. Mayor Levy stated there are Commission procedures with a time limit, however, he did not want to restrain the opportunity to speak as Commission meetings are a time to discuss issues. Mayor Levy stated the Commission would discuss it at a later time.

26. Mayor Levy

Elections

Mayor Levy thanked everyone for their support during the elections, observing the special one-on-one interactions during early voting. He stated he wanted to express gratitude to Commissioner Gruber, Commissioner Callari, Commissioner Biederman, Jaime Callari, and Donna Biederman for their heartfelt support. Mayor Levy stated he feels humbled to be elected for his third and final term. He stated he plans to address resident issues and aims to run the City efficiently, ensuring affordability and opportunities. Mayor Levy stated he appreciated the voters and volunteers for their efforts in working together.

Difficult Time

Mayor Levy thanked the Commission for their support during the passing of his mother-in-law, Ruth. He stated his mother-in-law was always in a positive spirit and grateful for seeing the wonder in life. Mayor Levy stated he is looking forward to continuing to lead the City for the next four years.

Commissioner Anderson

Mayor Levy stated he is looking forward to celebrating Vice Mayor Anderson on her exit and stated "you can take her out of Hollywood but can't take Hollywood out of her."
