25. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Commendation

Commissioner Callari stated she received a message from a resident commending Code Officer Anthony Albano for the great work he has done.

Hollywood Hills Civic Association

Commissioner Callari announced the Hollywood Hills Civic Association meeting at David Park Community Center tonight at 7:00 PM.

Thank You

Commissioner Callari thanked staff for all the projects in the works which are now coming to fruition, and stated everyone needs to stay focused and move forward.

First Responders Day

Commissioner Callari stated during the conference meeting, she spoke about the Wing Ding, and explained there was a discussion of an idea to have a Police versus Fire Departments cook off on First Responders Day at the ArtsPark.

Commissioner Biederman, Commissioner Anderson, Commissioner Gruber, and Mayor Levy supported this idea.

26. Commissioner Gruber, District 4

CRA Events

Commissioner Gruber stated he received a call as there seems to be some confusion about the CRA funding for events, specifically the Savor Hollywood Event, and wants to know if these projects are a full go. He questioned what is the information being sent out.

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated there was a meeting with CRA staff and there is discussion from the City Attorney on which items the CRA is unable to do. For the events that the CRA cannot handle, the City will take over those events. This item will be brought back in November, for around $2 million.

Mayor Levy stated that the City needs to communicate with the outside entities that the City will fund the events.

Bicycles

Commissioner Gruber stated young kids and teenagers are getting brazen on their bicycles. He requested recommendations from the Police Department and suggested an educational program through the School Resource Officers in the schools.

Program

Commissioner Gruber stated Adam Reichbach, Assistant City Manager for Finance and Administration, gave a presentation a few months ago regarding a program about a reward system for employees who notify other departments of concerns that they have noticed. Commissioner Gruber stated he wants an update on this issue.

Remembrance

Commissioner Gruber stated yesterday was an emotional day for the City, especially for the Police Department, in remembering Lieutenant John Graham and Officer Yandy Chirino along with the dedication of the playground. On Sunday there will be a celebration of Officer Yandy Chirino's life at the Mara Berman Giuliani Park from 12:00 noon to 4:00 PM, there will be joyful events.

27. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

Association Concerns

Commissioner Biederman stated one of the issues from civic associations is when new residents do not comply with code compliance issues, like their hard brush, junk, and garbage placement, taking in trash cans by sundown. Commissioner Biederman stated there should be a sign in the water division to notify new residents and suggested having certain acknowledgements be added in the water contract.

Illegal Dumping

Commissioner Biederman stated there is illegal dumping of hard junk in certain areas. He suggested staff research cell phone enabled cameras and suggested putting them up in certain high dumping areas.

Apology

Commissioner Biederman apologized to the Police Department for being late to the Lieutenant John Graham and Officer Yandy Chirino ceremony yesterday. He very much supports the Police Department and all their efforts.

Garbage Trucks

Commissioner Biederman stated the City could use a Google's artificial intelligence system placed on the garbage trucks for code enforcement.

28. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Commissioner Sherwood had no further comment.

Parkside Civic Association

Mayor Levy complimented Parkside Civic Association members for all the work they do to take care of Parkside and bring topics to their members.

FPL Request

Mayor Levy requested Commission support to contact FPL regarding the south side of Stirling Road between Sarazen Drive and Young Israel Temple which need additional lighting on the current FPL poles.

Commissioner Gruber and Commissioner Callari supported this request.

Congratulations

Mayor Levy congratulated Dwayne Chung, Police Officer, for his "I Care" Centennial Gala award from the Miami Rescue Mission for his work with the homeless population.

Streamlining Operations

Mayor Levy spoke about streamlining operations specifically the administrative review of certain threshold projects could move forward without going to the Planning & Development Board. If there are projects which are compliant with City Code and do not seek a variance, they can have administrative approval without going through the Planning & Development Board. Mayor Levy stated he would like an update on next Tuesday's memo.

Park East Civic Association

Mayor Levy announced tomorrow night, at 7:00 PM, Park East Civic Association is having their meeting at the Police Station regarding I-95 issues.
