Beverly Park

Commissioner Biederman spoke about underground utilities at Beverly Park, which are not owned by the City. He questioned if it would be feasible to try to annex utility areas served by Broward County.

Jeffrey P. Sheffel, City Attorney, explained it was done by agreement, and the City cannot force Broward County.

Sunset Golf Course

Commissioner Biederman explained he is for purchasing Sunset Golf Course for the land only. He does not want to spend a lot of funds on something that will not provide a return on investment. Commissioner Biederman suggested using Parking Funds for the purchase of the land, which can be utilized as a RV storage lot. He believes the purchase can be funded by several departments.

40. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Renaming Streets

Commissioner Sherwood explained a Lawn Acres resident looked up the old plat regarding the Liberia street names. The only concern is the distance or span of the street through the City.

CRA Funds

Commissioner Sherwood requested information regarding the regionalized use of CRA beach funds to the City, which would require the approval from Broward County. If approved, these funds can be used in other parts of the City.

Washington Park Area

Commissioner Sherwood explained a meeting was held with the Washington Park businesses regarding cleaning up the area. As of June 1st everything will be put into place, such as no overnight parking. They will also be creating a Washington Park Owners Association.

Commissioner Callari left the meeting at 3:10 PM.

Beach Parking
