Artwork Selection Committee - Questions***

1. Throughout my time in college, I've had a growing interest to get more involved in the communities and serve my fellow people all across Florida.

2. I want to join the Artwork Selection Committee because it's one of the committees that speaks most to me, and it's very location-friendly for me, too. I want to help out the city of Hollywood the best way possible, and I have knowledge and experience in artistry.

3. I am a part of the Special Events Advisory Board (Fort Myers) and the Tallahassee Bicycling Workgroup. I also currently serve as Florida State's Mr. Caribbean Students' Association and the Black Student Union's Mr. 1968 amongst 4 other organizations within Tallahassee.

4. I currently live in Fort Myers and I'm currently working towards going to law school, but I am more than willing to make the commute.

5. I am most interested in the photography element because I spent these last couple of years working on becoming a better photographer. Hollywood also has a lot of beautiful sights to capture, and I know it's reflected within the art produced from within the city, too.
