Hollywood Housing Authority - Questions*

1. Developers are mostly interested in building housing that will bring them the highest return. The HHA doesn't have that limitation and therefore should be at the forefront of building new affordable housing. 2. Based on my previous service on the HHA, I have skills in all five disciplines. But my background in real estate law gives me an edge in affordable housing construction. 3. I am passionate about all the items listed but most passionate about new housing construction. 4. I have had the honor of living in Hollywood for my entire life. My Dad taught me that it is important to give back to our community and service on this Board will allow me to continue to give to my hometown. 5. Affordable housing is critical to Hollywood's economic health. Unless we provide reasonable low cost housing in Hollywood, local businesses will have a more difficult time finding new employees. My wife is the director of the preschool at Temple Beth El in Hollywood. Most of her teachers cannot afford to live in Hollywood. If we want to build our local businesses, we need to have places for their employees to live in Hollywood.
