Happy New Year

Commissioner Hernandez wished everyone a Happy New Year.

43. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Graffiti

Commissioner Callari stated graffiti is everywhere, and she wants to implement a volunteer program to provide reuse paint for the residents to paint over the graffiti in their neighborhood.

Downtown Circulator

Commissioner Callari also requested an update on the Downtown circulator. Commissioner Callari mentioned the City of Miami Lakes circulator program.

Code Issues

Commissioner Callari stated she has lots of code issues which she will be providing to staff.

St. Patrick's Day

Commissioner Callari stated St. Patrick's Day is coming up and there is a need for volunteers.

Dog Show

Commissioner Callari announced the Be Mine Dog Show at Stan Goldman Park on February 10, 2018.

National Night Out

Commissioner Callari requested support for a change in the date Hollywood neighborhoods celebrate National Night Out in August due to weather issues. There are two National Night Out dates for Texas and Florida to choose from with the 2nd Tuesday in October being the other. Commissioner Callari wants support to have the event on the 2nd Tuesday in October. Commissioner Sherwood supported the request.

44. Commissioner Blattner, District 4

Garfield Garage

Commissioner Blattner stated he received complaints during the holidays about the elevators not working at the Garfield garage, which could have caused an ADA liability issue. He suggested the use of golf carts to help residents reach their vehicles if this happens again.

Complaints

Commissioner Blattner requested staff provide the City Commission with information when issues happen as the Commission receives calls/complaints and he does not want to be unaware of any of these issues.

Schools

Commissioner Blattner stated that Bethune Elementary School received a new principal several years ago which made a big difference to the school. South Broward High School has an excellent Cambridge Program. There are good schools in Hollywood.

City Hall Closed

Commissioner Blattner stated due to a quirk in the December holiday calendar, City Hall was closed for five days, in which residents were unable to get information. The same thing will happen again in 2018 due to the day the holiday falling on Monday and Tuesday, this cannot happen again. Commissioner Blattner questioned if the four day work week is worth it, as there is a back log of permits. He suggested opening up City Hall once a month on Fridays to address the back log of permits.

Hollywood Beach Golf Course

Vice Mayor Case thanked David Vasquez, Assistant Director for Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts, for holding the meeting with residents regarding the Hollywood Beach golf course property

Charter Review Committee

Vice Mayor Case questioned why the City Commission does not vote on issues presented by the Charter Review Committee before the questions go on the referendum ballot. She asked to have it changed so that the City Commission would vote on moving the questions forward. The Charter Review Committee should only be advisory.

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, explained during the prior Charter Review Committee process, the residents voted to have future Charter Review Committees as part of the City Charter and any question would go directly to the ballot. If the City Commission wished to follow Vice Mayor Case's suggestion, there are two options available, first is to ask the Charter Review Committee to present a ballot question to have the City Commission consider approval of ballot questions, or second the City Commission could place a referendum question regarding this issue on the ballot.

Discussion ensued among members of the Commission regarding the issue and the reason for the change.

Ground Hog Day

Vice Mayor Case announced February 2, 2018 is Ground Hog Day.

48. Mayor Levy
