Explanation:

This Resolution seeks authorization for the appropriate City Officials to issue the attached Blanket Purchase Order (BPO) to Thompson Consulting Services, LLC. for Disaster Debris Monitoring Services which includes, without limitation, assistance in the preparation for a disaster, temporary debris management sites, oversight for road clearance and debris loading, provide field oversight functions, and facilitate communications with various federal and state agencies involved in the disaster recovery process in an estimated annual amount of $5,000,000.00. The initial term of the blanket purchase order will run from June 6, 2018 through September 6, 2019.

The City of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, issued Request for Proposal #865-11764 for Disaster Debris Monitoring Services, and on September 7, 2016 awarded the Contract to the lowest, responsive, responsible bidder, Thompson Consulting Services, LLC. for the term beginning September 7, 2016 and ending September 6, 2019, with two optional one year renewals.

Funding for the attached blanket purchase order will be provided for the balance of fiscal year 2018 and for future fiscal years in Fund 68 Emergency/Disaster Accounts to be established as needed by the Department of Financial Services.
