24. Commissioner Blattner, District 4

Mayor Levy

Commissioner Blattner wished Mayor Levy a speedy recovery.

25. Vice Mayor Biederman, District 5

Canal Flooding

Vice Mayor Biederman spoke about all the rain recently and apologized to residents that live along the Turnpike canal between Taft Street and Sheridan Street for the flooding. He stated that the Turnpike Authority is pumping out the canal now and he will find out why it had backed up.

Election

Vice Mayor Biederman congratulated all the winners from yesterdays'

elections.

Traffic Study

Vice Mayor Biederman questioned what was the timeline for the Walnut Creek traffic study as this could provide an idea for the Hillcrest traffic study timeline.

Birthdays

Vice Mayor Biederman wished a Happy Birthday to his daughter and wife.

26. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Election

Commissioner Sherwood thanked everyone for voting for her.

Early Voting

Commissioner Sherwood stated she wants to work with the City in regards to issues during early voting. She explained each candidate should only be able to have a certain amount of political signs, as there were too many signs everywhere, along with people on megaphones. Commissioner Sherwood stated the police were called on a regular basis because people were threatened with assault.

Commissioner Blattner left the meeting at 3:23 PM.

27. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Early Voting

Commissioner Shuham stated she also agrees that staff take a look at what can be done to resolve some of the early voting issues.

Election

Commissioner Shuham stated that today is painful for the loss of Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Blattner who will be missed, and she congratulated Commissioner Sherwood.

Commissioner Blattner returned to the meeting at 3:28 PM.

West Lake Village

Commissioner Shuham stated that West Lake Village has a private HOA and they decided to do a massive tree removal, which does not require City approval. Due to such removal, the City received complaints and staff has been working with the contractor and there has been a cessation of the tree removal. Nonetheless, Commissioner Shuham wants staff to verify that the HOA is following all necessary protocols for the removal of trees by an association.

Veterans Day

Commissioner Shuham complimented City staff on the Veterans Day event; the City will be providing a complimentary meal for our Veterans, who must register with the City.

Pizza Rustica

Commissioner Shuham mentioned that the City is losing a major restaurant, Pizza Rustica, due to their closing. She thanked them for their constant support and comradery with the City and the community.

28. Commissioner Hernandez, District 2

Johnson Street Sidewalk

Commissioner Hernandez requested if staff can prioritize the sidewalks on Johnson Street, in front of the Sunset Golf Course, as they are in need of repair. Vice Mayor Biederman and Commissioner Callari supported this request.

Election

Commissioner Hernandez stated he was disappointed with the results of the election, but he works for the residents of the City, and he will continue to be involved.

29. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Early Voting

Commissioner Callari stated the biggest challenge of the election was the lack of knowledge residents had on Amendments, especially Broward County Amendment 2. She stated that from what she heard, the residents really did not understand the question. In the future, Commissioner Callari suggested the City provide an education campaign on ballot amendments in order to facilitate more education and a better understanding for the residents.

District Item

Commissioner Callari requested support for future items that affect one particular district, that the district commissioner be able to speak first since that commissioner would have the residents' input on the matter. There was no support from other members of the Commission.

Ocala Police Chief

Commissioner Callari stated that the Police Chief of Ocala passed away and he was a great family friend.

Election

Commissioner Callari stated that this country is very divided with this election. She recently spoke to a resident that was full of hate and anger, but after an hour of communicating, listening and being kind, they were able to find a common ground. Commissioner Callari stated that it is okay to disagree, but being able to communicate, listen and being kind is where we make the difference.

Commission Transition

Commissioner Callari wished Commissioner Blattner and Commissioner Hernandez well in their future endeavors.

30. Mayor Levy

Commission Transition

Mayor Levy thanked Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Blattner for their service to the City.

31. City Attorney

Commission Transition

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, thanked Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Blattner for working with him.

Ms. Alvarez

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, requested authorization for when, if needed, to take legal actions against Ms. Alvarez.

ACTION: A motion was made by Commissioner Hernandez, seconded by Vice Mayor Biederman, to give the City Attorney authorization to take, if needed, legal action against Ms. Alvarez. On a voice vote the motion passed unanimously (7-0).

32. City Manager

Commission Transition

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated a lot has been said today regarding the election results, he will provide his comments at the November 18th meeting.

CARES Act Funding

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, explained the CARES Act funding is available for Hollywood small businesses which will be administered by the Broward County Office of Economic and Small Business Development.
