Re: Engagement Letter

Dear Mr. Reichbach :

You have asked that I provide representation, advice, and counsel to you regarding gaming law legal analysis. The purpose of this engagement letter is to confirm an agreement concerning representation and the payment of our fees and expenses. This engagement letter will govern all subsequent matters in which we may become involved on your behalf unless a separate arrangement is made.

We will do our very best to meet your needs in any matters we undertake for you, but as you know, we cannot and do not make any representations or warranties concerning the outcome. We will give you our best advice, render opinions, and seek to obtain the desired result. In this regard, it is most important that we communicate regularly.

We have attached a copy of the firm's Policy Regarding Fees and Expenses. All conditions in that document are incorporated by reference as part of this engagement letter.

The following arrangement is proposed regarding fees and costs:

Our firm will charge for services on an hourly basis. My time will be billed at the discounted hourly rate of $495.00, and billings will not exceed $10,000.00 without your express approval . We reserve the right to utilize other members of the firm whenever, in our discretion, we deem it appropriate. Other members of the firm will be billed at their standard rates. Our hourly rates are subject to change in the future and are generally subject to review in August of each year. Further, paralegal, staff, and other resources may also be utilized if and when appropriate and in your best interest. You will be billed for the use of the same. You will not be billed for computer research.

Because of the relatively large size of our firm and our representation of many other clients, it is possible that there may arise in the future a dispute between another client and you. Our acceptance of the current representation of you will preclude us from accepting future representations adverse to you, which involve matters substantially related to the work we perform in the course of this engagement. However, as a condition to our undertaking the representation described in this letter, you and we agree that our acceptance of this engagement shall not preclude us from representing other clients in the future who may have interests adverse to you, with respect to matters not substantially related to the particular matters for which you have engaged our services.

If this letter and the terms contained herein meet with your approval, please indicate by having a copy of this letter signed in the space provided below and return it to our offices. Your approval of this letter will include agreement regarding the fees and costs arrangement.

I appreciate the confidence and trust you have reposed in me in asking me to represent you and encourage you to communicate with me if at any time you have questions on the status or progress of your matters. I look forward to working with you on any matters you deem appropriate. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

George Leveque
