Discussion ensued among members of the Commission regarding Commission Comments.

Jeffrey P. Sheffel, City Attorney, explained there can be an informal procedure or a formal procedure can be drafted into the Commission Procedures.

It was the consensus of the Commission to have the Mayor, based on the circumstance of the day, ask the Commission after all business has been completed, but before any late time certain items, if the Commission wishes to do Commission Comments at that time.

ACTION: Vice Mayor Biederman withdrew his motion to amend the Resolution on Commission Rules of Procedures.

Help Me Hollywood

Vice Mayor Biederman recognized Ken Crawford as the number one user in the City of the Help Me Hollywood program. Kirk Sheridan and Mitchell Sabanosh who reside in District 5 are frequent users of the program as well.

Home of the Quarter

Vice Mayor Biederman recognized District 5 residents for participating in Home of the Quarter. Joel Castillo, N. 70th Avenue, was chosen as the third quarter recipient.

49. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Florida League of Cities Conference

Commissioner Sherwood stated the Florida League of Cities Conference she attended in July, 2015 was excellent. She was impressed with the classes on economic development. She explained that in order to maintain a millage rate that residents can afford it is important that the City attracts the type of desirable industries which will spread out the tax base.

Red Light Camera Program

Commissioner Sherwood stated residents had a misunderstanding of what transpired with the red light program vote which resulted in members of the Commission receiving very negative e-mails. She explained the vote taken by the Commission on the red light contract at the last Commission meeting on July 8, 2015. The contract stipulated cancellation required a 60 day notice and a penalty of $50,000.00. Members of the Commission decided they were willing to review a new proposal whereby the contractor would offer to waive the $50,000.00 penalty.

Code Enforcement Volunteers

Commissioner Sherwood suggested that the City consider re-instituting the Code Enforcement volunteers program.

Summer Break

Commissioner Sherwood stated she hoped everyone had a nice summer.

FY2016 Budget Workshop

Commissioner Sherwood invited everyone to attend the FY2016 Budget Workshop tomorrow in order to observe how members of the Commission work towards a cost effective budget for residents.

42. P-2015-048

Presentation By Raelin Storey, Director of Public Affairs, On The City of Hollywood's 2015 Photo Contest.

Raelin Storey, Director of Public Affairs and Marketing, provided a presentation on the Photo Contest and presented awards to the various winners.

50. Commissioner Asseff, District 1

Summer Break

Commissioner Asseff stated she hoped everyone had a great summer.

Florida League of Cities Conference

Commissioner Asseff stated it was great to have Commissioner Callari, Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Sherwood attend the Florida League of Cities convention with her.

Economic Development

Commissioner Asseff explained that a recent article in the Sun-Sentinel Money Section highlighted an importer and exporter of bananas who has opened offices in Dania Beach at the Design Center. She suggested that Hollywood start to take note of the great businesses that are coming to the City, one of which is an import and export olive oil company located at 1915 Hollywood Boulevard. She suggested that staff explore opportunities for fresh produce companies to establish their businesses in the City.

51. Commissioner Hernandez, District 2

Florida League of Cities Conference

Commissioner Hernandez explained the great experience he had at the Florida League of Cities conference. The most significant aspect of the Conference for him was what he learned about the Millennial Generation and how to get them involved in government. He suggested the City establish a board to engage youth and incorporate technology into the Commission meetings in order to learn what millennials opinions are on agenda items.

Commissioner Blattner left the meeting at 2:51 PM and returned at 2:53 PM.

Regional Activities Center (RAC)

Commissioner Hernandez stated residents in a portion of District 2 are not happy about the RAC due to their fear of what the change involves and how it will affect them. They are under the impression that it is a zoning change rather than a land use designation for the area to attract new businesses. He requested that staff communicate more with the residents and educate them on the change and how it will affect them.

City of Dania Beach

Commissioner Hernandez announced that he has been in communication with Mayor Marco Salvino, Sr., from the City of Dania Beach, and other Dania Beach elected officials. They have expressed interest in partnering with the City on enhancements to N. 22nd Avenue for lighting and to improve pedestrian walkways with bricks and landscaping. Commissioner Hernandez stated he would like to meet with them to discuss these issues and holiday lighting for the Sheridan Street and Stirling Road corridors.

Back-Flow Preventers

Commissioner Hernandez announced he has received several calls in regard to the businesses that have not complied with back flow preventers. He requested a meeting with staff to discuss this issue.
