24. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Signage

Commissioner Shuham stated the City of Dania Beach sign on A1A is lovely and Hollywood CRA needs to use similar designs to enhance the City's gateways.

Broadwalk Right of Way

Commissioner Shuham stated a Broadwalk business owner wants to use the right of way for displays. This would be a similar program to how sidewalk cafes work.

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated there are multiple departments which this would impact and staff will research the issue.

Commissioner Blattner left the meeting at 5:20 PM.

Short Term Rentals/Vacation Rentals

Commissioner Shuham requested City Commission support to have the City's current ordinance on vacation rentals changed to include short term rentals. Commissioner Callari, Vice Mayor Biederman and Mayor Levy supported the request.

Enforcement on the Broadwalk

Commissioner Shuham stated more Park Rangers are needed on the Broadwalk to address non-serious issues, as the Police Officers are busy addressing the more serious incidents. She wants to have a more robust enforcement program with Park Rangers to enforce issues of dogs, speeding bikes, scooters, etc. Vice Mayor Biederman and Mayor Levy supported the request.

Electric Scooters

Commissioner Shuham stated she is thankful the City banned electric scooters in the City, as she referred to an article on electric scooter accidents.

Budget Workshop

Commissioner Shuham thanked staff for the recent budget workshop. It was an excellent workshop and a great team building exercise.

Congratulations

Commissioner Shuham congratulated Laurette Jean, Director of Budget and Performance Management, on obtaining her certification.

Large Events

Commissioner Shuham stated as discussed during the CRA meeting the City needs to get ahead of big events like when the Super Bowl came to South Florida. The City needs to take advantage of these opportunities to bring tourists to our City for our events.

Marquise Brown

Commissioner Shuham requested City Commission support to welcome Marquise Brown, also known as Hollywood Brown, back to the City by giving him a Key to the City. Commissioner Callari and Mayor Levy supported the request. Commissioner Shuham will contact Mr. Brown.

Thanked

Commissioner Shuham thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of services, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

Commissioner Blattner returned to the meeting at 5:26 PM.

25. Commissioner Hernandez, District 2

Thank You

Commissioner Hernandez thanked Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) and Jaime Hernandez, Emergency Management Coordinator, for helping clean up a residents home.

Speed Trailer

Commissioner Hernandez requested the Police Department place a speeding trailer on Monroe Street between 26th and 28th Avenues, as he has received complaints. There are no speed humps, only a stop sign, which is being ignored.

Project Efficiencies

Commissioner Hernandez stated during the CRA meeting he talked about the engineering division to work with the CRA so everyone is on the same page. He spoke about planning and coordination between departments for project efficiencies, and gave utilities and engineering projects in Parkside as an example.

Thanked

Commissioner Hernandez thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

Engineering Presentation

Commissioner Hernandez requested City Commission support to have the City Engineer give a presentation at the next CRA Board meeting regarding the projects they are working on in the Parkside area. Commissioner Shuham and Commissioner Sherwood supported the request.

26. Commissioner Callari, District 3

Dog Show

Commissioner Callari announced the Dog Show is this Saturday at Stan Goldman Dog Park, funds raised will be used for college scholarships.

Large Events

Commissioner Callari agreed with Commissioner Shuham regarding the City's need to get ahead of big events like when the Super Bowl came to South Florida.

Legislative Issues

Commissioner Callari thanked Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Shuham for going to Tallahassee with her for Florida League of Cities Legislative Day, and she thanked Representative Chip LaMarca for his vote against HB 1011.

Joint Meeting

Commissioner Callari announced on February 26, 2020 there will be a Joint Meeting with the City of Dania Beach.

Broward Solid Waste Recycling Committee

Commissioner Callari stated Pete Bieniek, Director of Public Works, will be the new chair of the Broward Solid Waste Recycling Technical Advisory Committee. This working committee will discuss solid waste and the 20 acre lot in Pompano Beach.

Stan Goldman Park

Commissioner Callari showed a video clip of pickle ball at Stan Goldman Park along with pictures of where maintenance is needed.

27. Commissioner Blattner, District 4

Walking Trails

Commissioner Blattner spoke about the need for safety at the walking trails, and suggested emergency call boxes.

Thanked

Commissioner Blattner thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of services, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

Vacation Rental Workshop

Commissioner Blattner stated at the Commission in the Community meeting it was discussed to have a vacation rental workshop, however a workshop is no longer needed.

Properties in Chronic Violation

Commissioner Blattner suggested that Code Compliance identify 2 or 3 properties which are constantly being cited as chronic properties on which the City might want to use ILA funds to change the future. He also suggested the Police identify properties with excessive police activity. He requested the information in March.

Dixie Highway

Commissioner Blattner questioned if the City should consider the re-naming of Dixie Highway, as this issue will be coming to the City and they will need to be ready to react as Hallandale Beach and Miami have already made a decision. The consensus of the City Commission was that Dixie Highway is a county road, Broward County will be making the decision.

28. Vice Mayor Biederman, District 5

Thank You

Vice Mayor Biederman thanked Herbert Conde-Parlato, Economic Development Manager, for attending the 2020 Economic Outlook

Conference for Commercial Real Estate Association to promote Hollywood. He also attended the 2020 Vision event to promote the City.

Black History Month

Vice Mayor Biederman thanked the African American Advisory Council (AAAC), Barry University and AT & T for promoting and supporting Black History month.

Litter Campaign

Vice Mayor Biederman stated earlier today there was a discussion on "Pick it Up" litter campaign, and requested the City provide shirts with a "Pick it Up" logo, for the beach cleanup event. He also stated 7 Eleven Stores had a program giving cops slurpee coupons to hand out to the community, when they were observed doing good deeds. He wants something similar by giving out rewards when people are doing good.

Paddle Boarding

Vice Mayor Biederman stated today's decision on paddle boarding was a compromise.

Septic to Sewer Workshop

Vice Mayor Biederman requested Commission support to have another septic to sewer workshop, with information on the timeline for implementation. Commissioner Hernandez and Commissioner Callari supported the request.

Drainage Projects

Vice Mayor Biederman stated he has asked for better drainage projects, to restart the swale program with a pilot project. He also asked for information on where the stormwater fees are being used and suggested low cost projects be done which would be visible and benefit the community.

Parking At The Beach

Vice Mayor Biderman stated there is still confusion regarding parking at the beach and questioned if the City can regulate the parking signs, especially the distinction between City versus private lots. Commissioner Shuham, Commissioner Hernandez and Mayor Levy supported the request.

Thanked

Vice Mayor Biederman thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

29. Commissioner Sherwood, District 6

Septic to Sewer Workshop

Commissioner Sherwood stated she agrees on having the septic to sewer workshop as residents have bought property and are waiting for sewers.

Speed Limit

Commissioner Sherwood stated a resident asked for speed limits on the bicycle portion of the Broadwalk before someone gets hurt, and suggested five miles per hour.

Vacation Rental

Commissioner Sherwood stated she wants the City to pass a resolution on vacation rentals, similar to other cities, to send to the State Legislature.

Holidays Around the World

Commissioner Sherwood thanked the City Commission for their support of her request at the CRA meeting regarding the Holidays Around the World program. She stated she will need help from the Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts, Department of Community, Marketing and Economic Development and the CRA to help with the RFP for a third party to run the event. The Holidays Around the World program will be a winter wonderland like Santa's Enchanted Forest for two weeks during December.

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated the contact staff person will be the Director of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts.

General Obligation Bond (GOB)

Commissioner Sherwood stated several residents have been wondering why the GOB projects are taking so long, and she stated she has explained to them the City needs to design the projects with architectural drawings, permitting, etc.

Thanked

Commissioner Sherwood thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

30. Mayor Levy

Septic to Sewer Workshop

Mayor Levy stated he is excited about having a Septic to Sewer

Workshop, to have a strategy of what to do and how to be strategic about it.

Traffic Calming

Mayor Levy stated he gave his State of the City speech at several civic association meetings. In Parkside and Playland Estates residents spoke about neighborhood speeding and are asking for speed tables. He requested some ideas to address the issue.

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, responded the City has hired a consultant to do a traffic calming study for the entire City to be completed by the end of the year.

Traffic Light

Mayor Levy stated there was an accident on Tyler Street and N 21st Avenue, and he asked staff to look at the traffic light sequence there.

Many Exits

Mayor Levy stated the traffic exiting the Sheridan Plaza at N 56th Avenue and Sheridan Street Plan has many exits, and suggested pavement markings to make it safer.

Circulator

Mayor Levy stated the circulator now has advertising on their vehicles, and he wants to know if the contract cost to the City was lowered due to the advertising.

Code Compliance

Mayor Levy stated many commercial properties have multiple tenants. When the tenants cause a violation the landlord/owner is cited, which takes time before the tenants are notified. He questioned if Code can revise the citation process to cite the business tenant as opposed to only landlords.

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, responded under Florida Law a lien can be filed only against the property owner for non compliance. The City can notify the business tenant in addition to the landlord/owner.

Thanked

Mayor Levy thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

31. City Attorney

Meetings

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, stated he has been asked in the past to help the Mayor regarding the meeting rules, so he may speak up more often.

Thanked

Douglas Gonzales, City Attorney, thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

32. City Manager

General Obligation Bond (GOB)

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated the City has information regarding the GOB on the website which shows weekly updates

Parks Master Plan

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, thanked David Barth on his presentation for the Parks Master Plan, and announced tomorrow there are community input sessions at Washington Park Community Center from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM and David Park Community Center from 6:00 PM to 8:30 PM.

Alleyways

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, announced residents need to remove personal items from the alleys in the Royal Poinciana area for tree trimming crews working until the end of February.

Thanked

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, thanked Lorie Mertens-Black, Chief Civic Affairs Officer, for her years of service, and wished her well on her upcoming retirement from the City as she will be missed.

Great Southern Hotel

Dr. Wazir Ishmael, City Manager, stated he has asked Shiv Newaldass, Director of Development Services, to give an update on the Block 40, Great Southern Hotel façade issue.

Shiv Newaldass, Director of Development Services, provided more detailed information on the activities on the property and why the façade was demolished.

33. The meeting adjourned at 6:13 PM.
