Explanation:

At the April 14, 2016 Planning and Development Board meeting, in accordance with the guidelines and procedures found in Section 5.3 of the City's Zoning and Land Development Regulations and Site Plan approval pursuant to Article 6 of the City's Zoning and Land Development Regulations, the Board approved Sol Van Buren LLC (the Applicant) request for five (5) Variances (in accordance the Regional Activity Center regulations), Design, and Site Plan, with the conditions for construction of a 42 unit residential development (Sol Van Buren) located at 2000 Van Buren Street (Planning and Development Board Resolution No. 15-DPV-72).

Subsequently, at the May 11, 2017 Board meeting, the Board approved the request for Variance, Design, and Site Plan to amend a previously approved residential development along with conditions as set forth in Planning and Development Board Resolution No. 15-DPV-72a (copy attached) to now include 62 units. Such conditions include design and safety concerns. Due to the conditions imposed by the Board, pursuant to Article 5, Section 5.7, a request to appeal the approval was filed by the Applicant on May 18, 2017 (within the 10 day timeframe).

The Public Hearing for consideration of the appeal by the City Commission shall be a 'DE NOVO' hearing; this will supersede the Board's decision for Variance, Design and Site Plan, as if the request is being considered for the first time. The same applicable standards and criteria found in the Zoning and Land Development Regulations shall be applied. At the conclusion of the hearing, the City Commission shall take action by approving, approving with conditions or denying the application for the requested Variance, Design and Site Plan as depicted in the attachments.
