Staff Recommends: Approval of the Resolution.

Explanation:

The Hollywood Art and Culture Center, Inc. is contracted to provide cultural services for the public through visual arts, performing arts and educational programming. The funding is for FY20; October 2019 to September 2020.

In FY2019 the appropriations provided to the Hollywood Art and Culture Center assisted in supporting Nine education programs which provided more than 100 unique curriculum-based activities for all ages, including 18 sessions of Summer Arts Camp for ages 3-15. Nine exhibitions in the Student Gallery and 3 unique sessions of the Teen Arts Ambassadors program that resulted in more than 2,300 hours of volunteer and program activity.

Programming also included 14 contemporary exhibitions and 16 gallery events.
