Explanation:

The Hollywood Art and Culture Center, Inc. (HACC) has the capability of providing cultural services to the public through its visual arts, performing arts and educational programming.

HACC has been providing cultural services and has been a recipient of previous appropriations for such services.

FY2016 funding assisted in supporting eight education programs that provided 84 unique curriculum-based activities for all ages, including 18 sessions of Summer Arts Camp for ages 3-15; 11 exhibitions in the Student Gallery; and three shows in the free Family Performance Series. Programming also included 24 contemporary exhibitions and 14 gallery events.

The City of Hollywood is desirous of entering into a new agreement with HACC to provide said services for fiscal year 2017.

Funding for the programming services has been appropriated and exists in Account No. 01.3167.00000.572.003117.
