Staff Recommends: Approval of the attached Ordinance

Explanation:

The Charter Review Committee was created for the purpose of conducting a comprehensive study of the City Charter. By a vote of two thirds (2/3), the Charter Review Committee may submit proposals to amend or revise the Charter to the City Commission.

The Charter Review Committee must submit to the City Commission any proposed amendments or revisions with associated ballot language no later than the first Tuesday in June. The City Commission shall place the Committee's proposals with the associated ballot language on the ballot.

This ordinance proposes to require the Commission to schedule a minimum of 20 regular public meetings a year and hold at least 18 with Citizens Comments held at least once a month. It would also require any commission member to disclose when he/she has knowledge of another commission member's voting conflict of interest. Language is also added to specify that Commission members shall only make requests or provide direction to the City Manager, City Attorney and their designees.
