What do you believe is the vision and primary work of the Community Development Advisory Board? 5. What do you believe uniquely qualifies you to serve on the Community Development Advisory Board?

Education Advisory Committee - Questions***

1. I would say the current challenges facing education is the lack of engagement and participation from students. More awareness and guidance can help them to increase attendance and their engagement in the school and community.
2. My vision for the education in Hollywood is a place of unity, community, and feedback with each other. I believe education should be done without harmful competition, and instead be towards helping each other grow. As a high school student also pursuing my AA degree, I see how harmful competition among peers can be.
3. The Committee works to help the community and what they think is necessary for the function of Hollywood's education as a whole. It is important to establish and converse about topics that regard finances, assistance, and opportunities.
4. The Committee should decide topics that are most important to the community as a whole. This could be through lots of discourse and discussion, whether seen through media or news sources. Also personal statements directly from people in the city that are popular, which the committee should converse about.
5. The Committee can know if its goals are being met by also viewing media sources and news, but also hearing directly from Student positions on the board. As a very involved student and others like myself, we can see and note progress or revisions that need to be made. This helps get primary evidence from people who are directly affected by certain decisions.

Please answer these five questions above. 1. What are the current challenges facing education? 2. What is your vision for education in Hollywood? 3. What do you see as the primary work of the Education Advisory Committee? 4. With only one meeting a month, the Committee is limited in what it can do. How does/should the Committee decide what's most important? 5. How can the Committee know if its mission and goals are being accomplished?
