33. Commissioner Shuham, District 1

Grants
Commissioner Shuham stated Broward County has made $20 million in available funds for County resiliency grants. She stated she would like City staff to pursue those funds aggressively.

Overnight Parking
Commissioner Shuham stated she had concerns from residents regarding the inconsistent enforcement of overnight parking rules across different areas of the City, particularly on the barrier island. She requested staff provide clarity on the policy and its application.

34. Commissioner Hernandez, District 2

Storm Drains
Commissioner Hernandez requested staff prioritize cleaning storm drains in advance of the rainy season, as there is a potential for sudden heavy rainfall.

Traffic Calming
Commissioner Hernandez requested an update on the status of traffic calming measures and improvements on 24th Avenue. He stated there have been crashes reported in the area.

35. Vice Mayor Callari, District 3

PAL Building
Vice Mayor Callari stated she would like to share a positive story related to the previous meeting's recognition of Jerry Christiansen and the naming of the PAL building in his honor. She stated a Memorial Hospital Respiratory Therapist Supervisor at her hospital, who knew Mr. Christiansen personally, expressed deep gratitude for the City's recognition and requested to be present for the dedication ceremony.

Warning Lights
Vice Mayor Callari stated there is inconsistent deployment of flashing warning lights for speed enforcement in school zones. She stated some areas have pre-warning lights and others do not. Vice Mayor Callari stated this is creating resident complaints about citations. She requested staff work with the County to assess placement of flashing lights at all school zones.

Jazz Festival
Vice Mayor Callari stated the Jazz Festival discussion and confirmed her support for the concept, but she had cost concerns.

Naming Policy
Vice Mayor Callari stated the suggestion of naming an element at Sunset Park after Karen Caputo is a great idea. She stated in addition, the picklelball group wants to name courts after individuals. Vice Mayor Callari requested Commission support on the naming of elements in the Naming Policy criteria for parks and public facilities be reviewed and formalized to ensure consistency.

36. Commissioner Gruber, District 4

Playland Estates
Commissioner Gruber stated he received an email from the Playland Estates President indicating the neighborhood was omitted from the City's way-finding signage program because their existing sign was installed privately. He requested staff review and confirm when way-finding signs will be installed.

Summer Camp
Commissioner Gruber announced that the Sloane Stephens Summer Camp, a free program offering tennis, sports, tutoring, and life skills at Driftwood Community Center, is accepting registrations. He requested staff distribute program information to all Commissioners for community outreach.

37. Commissioner Biederman, District 5

Jazz Festival
Commissioner Biederman stated he has concerns regarding funding allocated to different events and districts. He stated concerts in his district have historically received far less support than the proposed Jazz Festival investment and there must be equal between the districts. Commissioner Biederman stated Joseph Young's vision for Hollywood as a City was for residents of all economic means to guide decisions about programming and public investment.

38. Commissioner Quintana, District 6

Change on Position
Commissioner Quintana stated elected officials are entitled to change their positions when new information is presented. She stated the picnic food concept for the Jazz Festival was intended as a mechanism to involve local businesses, not to compete with them. She stated she supported the event concept.

39. Mayor Levy

Shelby Thomas
Mayor Levy stated he had spoken with Shelby Thomas, Ocean Rescue Alliance International President, who was recovering from a serious motorcycle accident. He stated that she was in good spirits and already engaged in discussions about Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) permits and reef programming for Hollywood. He stated the Commission wished her well on her recovery.

Knights of Columbus
Mayor Levy stated there was the successful closing of the City's acquisition of the Knights of Columbus building near Justice Skate Park and the Pickleball courts at Stan Goldman Park. He stated this will provide additional parking in that area. Mayor Levy requested the parking area be opened to the public promptly with appropriate signage. He requested an informational amenities sign be placed at the park entrance to help visitors navigate all available facilities.

Safety Video
Mayor Levy stated that he had participated in a public service announcement video with Memorial Regional Hospital’s Trauma Unit on e-scooters and electric bicycles safety and encourage residents to wear shoes and helmets when operating such devices.

Synthetic Turf
Mayor Levy stated the State of Florida had published its final rule permitting synthetic turf on residential properties under one acre, preempting local prohibitions, and requested staff to prepare a residential guide sheet summarizing the applicable State standards.

Happy Memorial Day
Mayor Levy wished everyone a safe Memorial Day.

40. City Attorney
